Miss Velma Jean Boatwright became the bride of John D. Scallion, jr. in a formal noon wedding Sunday, July 1, at the Keystone Full Gospel Church. Rev. P. Rudd joined the couple in matrimony.

Women of Moose Tell Activities

The Women of the Moose met in regular session at the Moose Club rooms on Carson street, July 11th, with the Senior Regent Geneva Clawson officiating. As this was the first meeting of the new year, many plans were discussed and some were adopted.

Members of the College of Regents met for the round up breakfast in honor of the new Senior Regents with an attendance of 21 members July 8th in Los Angeles. The present Senior Regent Geneva Clawson was the guest of College Regent Ma Mae Ambach at this meeting. Other guests from Torrance were Ruth Kidd and Ann Wilhelm.

Velma Scallion, was elected Vice Chairman of the Friendship Degree for the ensuing term.

The executive officers met at the home of the Senior Regent Geneva Clawson on Torrance boulevard, July 9th, for the purpose of laying plans for the new year. Publicity Chairman Mrs. Ethel Teelen will hold a benefit card party at her home on Friday, July 13th at 1:00 p.m. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

AGED COUPLE TURN GREEN

It was reported today by good authority that an aged couple from this city turned a vivid shade of green within sight of a number of witnesses. According to statements made, the Torrance Upholstery Shop accepted full responsibility for the condition of the couple.

Torrance Upholstery explained that the aged couple were obviously on their last legs. Therefore they ripped the coverings off their backs and removed their old padding and springs. They then completely rebuilt the old couple of easy chairs and recovered their solid frames with a beautiful modern green fabric. "We build your furniture so that it never lets you down." Bridesmaids were Margy Matias, sister of the groom, who wore a gown of sky blue; Betty Scallion, sister of the groom, in a gown of yellow lace and net; and Glenna Basham, wearing a pale blue lace and net gown.

Acting as best man to the groom was Bob Casman. Attendants were Tommy Finicum, Bob Harmon, and Tommy Broadway, cousin of the bride. Ushers were Everett Henry, and James C. Sullino.

The newlyweds now reside in an apartment on Cabrillo avenue. Scallion is employed at the North American Aircraft in Torrance.

Talk Formation of Pre-School Waleria Group

Possibilities of formation of a pre-school parent's group were discussed at the regular monthly meeting of the Waleria PTA executive board held July 5 with Mrs. Bruce Nowey, vice president, presiding.

Purpose of the group would be for parents of pre-school age children to better understand children's and parent's problems in discipline, social adjustment, health, etc. This group would also give the parents a better understanding of the school program before having actual enrollment contacts with the school.

Mrs. V. Dana, budget and finance chairman, announced that a meeting of the committee recently named to set up a tentative budget for this year will meet at her home, 3677 Newton street, at 8:30 p.m. Thursday, July 12th.

Membership chairman, Mrs. Johnson, announced that suggestions for a theme for the fall membership drive would be welcomed by her.

Tippins and Son, Home on Leave, Enjoy Vacation

Among the many happy vacationers of the past fortnight were Dr. and Mrs. John W. Tippin of 1737 Martina avenue, who were so glad to welcome home their son on his leave from Camp Roberts.

They left shortly after, for a trip to Yosemite and other beauty spots. Their happiness, however, was mixed with some sadness knowing that on their return their son, John W. Jr., would soon be in training for the Port of Embarkation and on his way to Japan.

The doctor is somewhat of a newcomer to Torrance, as he recently moved here and took up

Sextette on "First 100 Years"

This accomplished sextet really could double in brass. . . They are the producer and director and four of the cast members of CBS-TV's "First Hundred Years," which is daytime television's first serial dramatic program. Although none is called on for musical talents in the course of his or her activities on "FHY," anytime the notion came to make the straight dramatic show into a musical comedy, the change would be accomplished with superfluous ease! That's producer Murray Bolen on the trumpet, Mary Linn Beller, who is "Margie," at the keyboard; Jimmy Lydon, who is hero "Chris Thayer," handling the vocal; Olive Stacey, heroine "Connie," with the fiddle (and she dances, too!); Director Bud Gammon strumming the uke, and actress Nan Bryant going to town on the traps. They couldn't miss!
